

Task(9.1)

Implement a C++ program that defines two functions to perform addition and subtraction of two numbers. Then, use function pointers to allow the user to choose which operation to perform.

Example:

Input:

Choose operation (+, -): +

Enter The first number: 50

Enter The second number: 70

Output:

The result = 120

Thank You